FOR FREE KANSAS—FREE PRESS—FREE SPEECH—FREEMEN!

FOR PRESIDENT,

JOHN C. FREMONT.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

WILLIAM L. DAYTON.

FOR ELECTORS,

State at Large { EDWARD D. HOLTON. TIMOTHY O. HOWE.

"I REPEAT THAT I NEVER CAN AND NEVER WILL VOTE, AND NO EARTHLY POWER WILL EVER MAKE ME VOTE, TO SPREAD SLAVERY OVER TERRITORY WHERE IT DOES NOT EXIST."—HENRY CLAY

"The freemen of the North have a deep interest in keeping labor free, exclusively free, in the new territories. * * * I have made up my mind, for one, that, UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES, will I CONSENT TO THE FURTHER EXTENSION OF THE AREA OF SLAVE in the United States, in light of the false Democratic Slave representation in the House of Representatives."—DANIEL WEBSTER.

"I heartily concur in all movements which have for their object to repair the mischief arising from the violation of good faith in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. I am OPPOSED TO SLAVERY IN THE ABSTRACT, and upon principles established and made habitual by settled conviction. While I feel indifferent in the belief that it ought not to be interfered with where it exists under the shield of State sovereignty, I am on principle opposed to the extension on this continent beyond its present limits."—JOHN C. FREMONT.

"FREE LABOR—THE NATURAL CAPITAL WHICH CONSTITUTES THE REAL WEALTH OF THIS GREAT COUNTRY, AND CREATES THAT INTELLIGENT POWER IN THE MASSES WHICH ALONE TO BE RELIED ON AS THE BULWARK OF FREE INSTITUTIONS."—JOHN C. FREMONT'S Letter of Acceptance.

The "Sentinel" for the Campaign.

As many persons may be desirous to obtain the Sentinel for the Campaign, without ordering it for the full term of a year, we publish the following rates, at which we will send one or more copies of our several editions, from July 15th to December 1st. As the Election occurs Nov. 4th, this ought, in these days of telegraphs, to enable us to give the result in all of the States of the Union except California, in the last number.

DAILY,	$2 50
TRI-WEEKLY,	1 25
WEEKLY,	37½

The above rates for the Daily and Tri-Weekly are somewhat less than our regular terms. For the Weekly they are the same as $1 per year. CIRCULATE THE DOCUMENTS.

Whitfield Unseated.

The House of Representatives yesterday, by a vote of 110 to 92, declared Mr. WHITFIELD, the Border Ruffian Delegate from Kansas, not entitled to a seat in Congress. Mr. WHITFIELD will accordingly have to pack home again. Thus, one by one, are the wrongs of injured Kansas being avenged. SHANNON is turned out of office by the same President who appointed him. The bogus legislature and Border Ruffian laws of Kansas are repudiated by both Houses of Congress. And now WHITFIELD is turned out of the seat, to which Missouri voters elected him by fraud and force. It only remains for THE PEOPLE in November to visit with their stern condemnation the authors and abettors of all these villainies and infidelities.

Freemen Turn Out!

MARTIN GROVER, one of the ablest and most influential Democrats of New York, who has enlisted in the campaign under the banner of FREMONT and FREEDOM, speaks at Young's Hall to-night. He will give his reasons for the faith that is in him. Mr. GROVER spoke at Madison, Wednesday evening, to a vast audience, and made a most profound impression. Go and hear him this evening!

BULLY BROOKS BACK AGAIN.—It will be seen by the telegraph report that BULLY BROOKS resumed his seat in the House of Representatives yesterday, his South Carolina constituents having endorsed his cowardly assault upon Senator SUMNER by re-electing him without opposition. So much for Southern chivalry. The Buchananeers gain one vote by BROOKS' return, and another by HERBERT'S acquittal.

Mechanics' Fair at Chicago.

The Eighth Annual Fair of the Chicago Mechanics' Institute is to be held in Chicago from the 7th to the 15th of October next. Great preparations are making to ensure a very large and attractive exhibition, and the Secretary of the Chicago Institute requests us to invite our mechanics, manufacturers, and citizens generally to attend and take part in the Fair. The Board of Directors have taken measures to secure ample room for the display of all articles sent from any part of the Union. But they particularly invite the cities and towns of the North-west to cooperate with them in getting up an exhibition commensurate with the growth and prosperity of this section of the Republic. Pamphlets containing the rules, regulations and classifications for the proposed Mechanical and Agricultural Fair may be found at the Walker House in this city.

PIERCE AND BUCHANAN.—Not only did the Cincinnati Convention, which nominated Buchanan, pass a resolution unanimously endorsing Pierce and his Administration, but Mr. Pierce himself, in his "ratification" speech to the Sham Democracy of Washington, thus claimed Mr. Buchanan as his friend and successor:

"I congratulate you that your choice has fallen on a man (Buchanan) who stands on the identical platform that I occupy, and that he will take the same, with the standard lowered never an inch!"

Mr. Buchanan having merged himself in this platform every vote for him is a vote to endorse and prolong the present weak and wicked Administration of FRANKLIN PIERCE. How many votes will the West give for such an object?

Alderman Fulmer Nailed.

It was at Brown's Hotel at Washington, in February, 1842, that "Alderman Fulmer" pretended to have met Col Fremont and heard him avow himself a Catholic. It was already proved that Col. Fremont was not at Brown's Hotel, nor in Washington at all that year.

But a new fact now appears, which puts the Aldermanic falsifier into a still lighter place. The register of Brown's Hotel, for the whole of the years 1842 and 1843 have been carefully examined, and there was no such name as Fulmer in it! Not only was Col. Fremont not there, but the Alderman wasn't there himself!—Albany Evening Journal.

This Ald. FULMER is one of the "swift witnesses" upon whom the Know-Nothing and Buchanan allies rely to prove the false charge which they have started and are so industriously circulating, that Col. FREMONT is a Catholic. The Alderman, averred with great precision as to time and place, that he had a conversation with Col. FREMONT at Brown's Hotel, Washington, in February 1842, in which FREMONT avowed his belief in the Catholic faith. It now appears that neither FREMONT nor FULMER was at Brown's Hotel at all, during 1842!

MORE TRUE DEMOCRATS.—The Jefferson Republican says: Hon. John E. Holmes, first Lieutenant Governor of this State, and Alonzo Wing, Esq., who has once or twice represented this district in the Assembly, two of the most influential Democrats of this county, have repudiated the Slavery platform, and declared themselves in favor of Freedom and Fremont.

FIRE AT IXONIA.—The Saleratus Factory of the Messrs. PIPER, at Ixonia, Jefferson County, was destroyed by fire last Friday. Loss $1200—no insurance.

A Trip to the Northwest.

CROW WING, July 23, 1856.

Geographically speaking, the place of my dating lies at the junction of the Crow Wing and Mississippi rivers, about eight miles above Fort Ripley, and one hundred and forty above St. Paul. It is an important Indian trading post, and has been for the last half century. There are not more than half a dozen whites living here now. The rest of the population is made up of Indians and half breeds.

Owing to the low stage of water on the Mississippi bars, we were obliged to make the journey from St. Paul to this point by land. With the hot sun that we were constantly favored with, the accompanying dust and indifferent fare, we could not regard the trip as among the luxuries of life. Stages run up to Fort Ripley three times a week, and in them passengers are howled along at the rate of four or five miles an hour—stoppages at "intermediate ports" not included. At this point we take bark canoes, which we have purchased of the Indians, and shall, with the exception of short portages, make the journey to Lake Superior in them. To do this, we must follow up the Mississippi for several days yet, cross Sandy Lake, portage over to the St. Louis River, and go down that to Superior.

The country between here and St Paul is much better than I expected to find it. As you follow up the Mississippi, timber becomes more abundant, and is of heavier growth; yet we crossed all along occasional fine prairies, five to fifteen miles over. The prairies always have that gentle undulation which is so desirable, and the small patches here and there cultivated, show a very good quality of soil. A few settlements are springing up along the river banks. Eventually, I suppose, the iron horse will claim the country as one "over which he may have dominion," and men, women and children will have added to their solicitudes the important care of "looking out for the cars when the bell rings." Then the country will be worth something. Now transportation adds one hundred per cent to the value of all heavy freights from St. Paul. Flour is worth $15 per barrel, pork $30, oats $1.50 per bushel, &c. Men already talk of a railroad connecting this point with Lake Superior, and surveys of the route are in progress. It is claimed that a road can be built from Superior, touching the northern shore of Mille Lac, to this point, and then down to St. Paul, as cheaply as from Superior direct to the latter point. This route will certainly open up a country of greater resources. Such a road, of course, cannot be built without an appropriation of lands.

Crow Wing is the uppermost point of civilization on the Mississippi. As I before observed, its population is made up of half a dozen white men, a considerable number of half-breeds, and Indians in indefinite quantities. These white traders have been residents here for many years. They are of that noble stock of Scotch fur traders that belonged to the old North-West and American Fur Companies. All of them have Indian wives. A fur trader succeeds much better having an Indian wife; hence self-interest was the cause of many of these marriages. We have for several days past been living with a family, the queen of which is a full-blooded Indian woman; and so we have become acquainted with most of the other households of the place. They are all industrious, orderly and neat. The Indian wife is patient and obedient in all things save one—she will not learn the English language, but compels her white lord to take up the Chippewa. Like a true woman, she will give up everything for love, but the use of her own tongue. Among the patriarchal progeny, one especially a Benedict, cannot help noticing some very pretty half-breed girls. Those symmetrical forms, well-turned features and brunette complexions, combined with jeweled eyes and long black hair, cannot help making up in the aggregate a rather touching style of beauty. They chatter Chippewa like a tree full of squirrels, and can manage the King's English beautifully, with a little generous prompting on the part of the listener.

The Chief of the Chippewa, or Ojibway nation, lives at the Agency, four miles from here. His name is Quiwescence, alias Holendale. He lives in good style, and is generally respected by the whites, although the Indians, for some reason or other, do not hold his authority in much reverence. The Chippewas are generally finely built men. Some few of them, have been induced to cultivate the soil, but work does not assimilate with their ideas of ease and dignity. The old war between the Chippewas and Sioux is still kept up. War parties are constantly making inroads into the territories of each other. The taking of a scalp affords occasion for a general pow-wow. The Indian agents are making strenuous efforts to break up this warlike spirit, but that will be found hard to do. The Indians say that so long as they disturb nobody else, they ought to be allowed the privilege of scalping each other.

The origin of this feud, like many others that the world has seen, had a Helen in it. The Indians tell the story thus. A great many years ago a large hunting party of Chippewas and Sioux met together on the St. Croix river. After having a friendly hunt together, they prepared to separate. One of the Chippewas having two wives had one of them stolen. He did not leave the camp ground with his brothers, but sat there till evening, singing of revenge. At night he took a lance and followed the trail of the Sioux. He overtook them, entered their camp, espied the guilty woman and her seducer, killed them both and fled before the astonished Sioux could molest him. Then a great war party was organized by the Sioux, which came down on the Chippewas; a great fight ensued, which is not done with yet.

We have been at Crow Wing four or five days making preparations. Our party consists of six gentlemen. We are to be accompanied by six voyageurs half-breeds and Indians, filling three canoes. These latter articles are hard to get here. We were fortunate in obtaining ours. A band of Indians came down from Rabbit Lake the day after our arrival, bringing with them for sale just the boats we wanted. We hope to be on our way to-morrow. I send this letter to St. Paul by friends who came up with us. F.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Letter from Mr. Baker.

JANESVILLE, July 21, 1856.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I see that the pro-slavery papers are claiming that I am for Buchanan. I ought not to be surprised at this, because I have concluded to be surprised at nothing that Doughface editors may do unless they tell the truth; yet this does astonish me, for my time is occupied in canvassing for Freedom and Fremont.

When I approve of the deeds of Border Ruffians that would shame Indians or Cossacks, and which are supported by our national administration, though more outrageous than the deeds of the worst European despots; when I approve of mob law in Congress, and the snake like attack on Sumner, more dastardly than the rattlesnake who always warns his victim; when I believe that a democratic Member of Congress does not deserve even a censure for murdering an Irishman, then I may go a step lower still and vote for JAMES BUCHANAN for President. But while I have my senses and love Justice, Right, and Freedom, I shall oppose the new doctrines the slaveholders are forcing northern doughfaces to call democracy, contained in their platform, and endorsed by Mr. Buchanan, and consequently I shall oppose Mr. Buchanan's election.

Yours for FREEDOM and FREMONT,

JOSEPH BAKER.

☞ Mr. Sherman was Representative in Congress from Connecticut; his business had been that of making shoes. John Randolph, who had Indian blood in him, rose, and with his usual squeaking sounds, said, "I should like to know what the gentleman did with his leather apron before he set out for Washington?" Mr. Sherman replied, imitating the same squeak, "I cut it up, sir, to make moccasins for the descendants of Pocahontas."

Milwaukee and Superior R. R.

The election upon the question of loaning the credit of the city to the Milwaukee and Superior road, to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars, takes place on Monday next.

This is the last election but one which will probably ever be held in the city for a like purpose.

It will be recollected that at the time the ordinances were passed by the Common Council dividing the sum of $224,000 between the Milwaukee & Beloit, the Milwaukee & Superior, and the Fox River Valley Railroads, the Council passed resolutions declaring that this sum was all that the city could, or ought to loan for Railroad purposes, and the act of the Common Council was approved by the Mayor, who accordingly signed the ordinances providing for such distribution.—These three loans are included in the sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, which, in the opinion of the Mayor and many other citizens, is the limit to which the city is authorized to loan her credit.

There is, therefore, no objection to the loan of the credit of the city to the Milwaukee & Superior Railroad, if the road is one of utility to the city. This does not admit of a doubt. We have heretofore spoken of the merits of the enterprise, and do not now hesitate to say that more than any other route from the city that has not yet received city aid, it promises both advantage to the city, and ultimate profit to those interested in it.

Its route lies through one of the richest and most populous agricultural regions in the State, and will connect us with a large number of flourishing and rapidly increasing villages which are now, half the year, completely isolated from us by almost impassable roads.

The road is a necessity and must be built, and we are happy to learn that good progress has already been made in the commencement of the enterprise. Arrangements have been made for the use of about five miles of the La Crosse and Milwaukee road near the city, thus saving the heavy immediate expense of a separate track into the city.

Depot grounds have been secured—the route surveyed and staked from Milwaukee to Port Washington, ready for the contractors—the right of way appraised, and in part secured through Milwaukee County—and preparations made to commence work at this end of the road as soon as the vote of the city upon the proposed loan of one hundred thousand dollars is had.

We trust our citizens will give the loan a hearty support on Monday at the polls.

MILWAUKEE.

August 1st, 1856.

For the Sentinel

The First of August.

Yesterday was the First of August, and upon that date, many years since, at 12 o'clock, the memorable Emancipation Act passed by the British Parliament, was read from the doorsteps of the Overseers Houses throughout the British West India Possessions of H. B. Majesty.

What a fruitful lesson is the history of the incidents leading to the passage of that act. A few men—called, and even scoffed at, as "despicable Methodists," met in the second story of a small, dingy and dirty house in Spitalfields, in England's Metropolis. They discussed the story of the African's wrongs, and the horrors of Slavery. They passed a resolution to continue that discussion and to invite others to meet them in discussion. They gained strength as they proceeded. Soon the mighty intellects of WILBERFORCE and CLARKSON were thrown into the scales.—Their argument touched the chords of British Humanity. To Parliament went their petitions, at the foot of the throne they were strewn. The nerves of public sympathy were touched, the sensations were concurring.

The bill was brought up in Parliament, and when the call of the roll came on, every Irish member of the Parliament voted AYE. The large-hearted O'CONNELL was heart and soul in the cause. The act was passed. And that little band of poor, and slandered, and persecuted Methodists, presented their draft for one hundred millions of dollars at the British Treasury, and it was honored at sight, the money was paid, and the gyves, the manacles and the shackles fell from every slave on British ground.

Yesterday, in America, four millions of human creatures pined in bondage; and among the most prominent for Slavery extension are the countrymen of O'Connell; and could his noble heart be again imbued with vitality, it would leap from its urn and scatter scorn upon the traducers of his character, and who now slander him, for one of the many noble acts of his life, refusing to receive the money whipped and lashed from the backs of Georgia slaves to aid in Ireland's freedom.

The spirit of THOMAS JEFFERSON must have wept at the sight now beheld upon the soil he has departed, and crying down from Heaven must have exclaimed, as he was wont to do before—"THE ALMIGHTY HAS NO ATTRIBUTE WHICH CAN TAKE SIDE WITH US IN SUCH A CONTEST."

PUBLICOLA.

For the Sentinel.

The Sixth Ward Public School.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Every citizen does not know that there is a Public school, kept in a superior manner, in the Sixth Ward near Mr. Samuel Brown's. The writer yesterday had the pleasure of witnessing some of the exercises as they are performed in their every day manner.

The "first law of Nature," order, prevails supremely in this school. There seems to be a public sentiment in the school room which causes the school to govern itself, in other words, it is popular for the pupils to do right, and unpopular to do wrong. The spelling and reading, as well as very many recitations in concert were performed in a manner which reflect great credit upon the accomplished Principal, Miss Elvira Langdon, and her faithful assistant Miss Price.

They labor however, under a disadvantage, which strikes the visitor at the first glance; they need as much more room as that already used.

Situated, as is that school house, in the midst of a rapidly settling point of the city, the money of the city raised for school house purposes ought to be spent, in part, for the enlargement of this house. Your City Officers having charge of the matter would do well in looking to the subject as a duty of their own, and an act of simple justice to the patrons and teachers of the school.

A VISITOR.

Milwaukee, Aug. 1.

YELLOW FEVER, AT QUARANTINE, N. Y.—The N. Y. Herald learns from an official personage at the quarantine station, that eight deaths have occurred there within the last thirty-six hours of yellow fever, among the employees at the station. A laundress, whose business was to purify the clothes of passengers from infected ports, is dead; her husband, in the vigor of health, has followed her; and two young children, also, have fallen victims to the disease.

A NOVEL TEST.—The publishers of the New York Sun recently got up, and issued in extras, portraits of the three sets of candidates for President and Vice President. It issued these extras on different days, and the following is the result of sales:

Fillmore and Donelson, total extra sales	11,288
Fremont and Dayton, total extra sales	12,517
Buchanan and Breckenridge, total extra sales	11,081

THE SECTIONAL CANDIDATES.—"Elect our candidate," cry the Buchanan men, "or we will dissolve the Union."

"Elect me," says Mr. Fillmore, "or the South won't submit, and will dissolve the Union."

"Whether Col. Fremont is elected or not," says the Republicans, "this Union must and shall be preserved!" The Republican is the only party that makes no threats against the Union. To such a party the Union may safely be entrusted.

An Ally for the News.

The New York Express, a leading K. N. organ, occupies two columns in the attempt to prove Col. FREMONT a Catholic, because he carved on Independence Rock the emblem of Christianity. The same paper publishes a communication from which we extract the following:

FREMONT'S ROMANISM.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Express:

Is John C. Fremont a Catholic?

His father was a Frenchman who emigrated to South Carolina; most Frenchmen are Catholics, and he was probably one.

If Col. Fremont was educated in a Catholic Seminary, he was without doubt brought up in the Catholic faith.

Col. Fremont was for a short time associated with the illustrious Hassler, engaged in scientific pursuits. Mr. Hassler was a Catholic, and this perhaps was one of the reasons that induced Col. Fremont to join him. When the latter started on his famous exploring expedition to the Rocky Mountains, in 1842, his company consisted of

Frenchmen and Catholics	20
Americans and Protestants	5
	25

Were there not enough Americans in the West, hardy hunters, and used to all the hardships of a trapper's life, who would gladly have accompanied him in his expedition, without the necessity of Col. Fremont's troop, consisting of foreigners. Even in Missouri there were hundreds of Americans who would gladly have joined him if requested so to do. But Col Fremont, being of French extraction, and a Jesuit, preferred the society of such followers in preference to native-born Americans.

The Express will answer admirably to "hunt in couple" with the News. It not only charges Col. FREMONT with being a Catholic, but with the still more heinous offence of employing "foreigners" in the public service! No wonder the Buchanan and K. N. organs abuse him.

NO BUSINESS TO BE A WAITER.—The verdict of the Washington Jury on the Keating case, acquitting the Congressman HERBERT of the murder of the Irish waiter, is in perfect accordance with the principle thus enunciated in a recent South Carolina paper:

Any provocation that may have been given for the assault upon the body of waiters, was at the most a provocation of words, and such a provocation, as a servant should not have the right to resent; and, IF WHITE MEN ACCEPT THE OFFICES OF MENIALS, IT SHOULD BE EXPECTED THAT THEY SHOULD DO SO WITH AN APPREHENSION OF THEIR RELATION TO SOCIETY, AND THE DISPOSITION QUIETLY TO ENCOUNTER BOTH THE RESPONSIBILITIES AND LIABILITIES WHICH THE RELATION IMPOSES.—Charleston (S. C.) Standard.

FREMONT MEETING AT BEAVER DAM.—The friends of Freedom and Fremont held a most spirited meeting in Beaver Dam on Thursday evening. The Hall was crowded with enthusiastic sons of Liberty. The meeting was addressed by Dr. JUDD, of FOX Lake, and Messrs. A. FINCH, JR. and BYRON PAINE, of this city. The Buchaneers had a gathering the same evening, but it was a slim and spiritless affair, compared with the Fremont rally. All our accounts warrant the belief that Dodge County, that old Democratic stronghold, will give a majority for FREMONT.

"HAIL COLUMBIA."—A new comic illustrated paper, with this popular title, has just been started in New York. It professes to be independent without being neutral, and its sympathies are evidently with the Pathfinder. Its chief illustration represents the Republican train on the track, with full steam up, heading directly for the White House. The Herald serves as cow-catcher, and both Buchanan and Fillmore are swept off the track in the most summary manner, the latter protesting that he did not know he was on the track.

The following is one of its nursery rhymes:

"Buck and Fill went up the hill,
Buck fell down and broke his crown,
And Fill came tumbling after!"

Col. Fremont's Early Education.

NEW YORK, July 21, 1856.

To the Editor of the New York Daily Times:

In the Morning Express of Saturday, Mr. Brooks asserted that Col. Fremont received his education in a Roman Catholic Institute in Charleston, S. C., under the late Bishop England. Although opposed to the party who nominated him—in justice to himself and the memory of his mother—I brand these assertions as utterly false from beginning to end. Born in Charleston, I have known him from my earliest days. He was my school mate for many years. I was a member of the same Sunday School class with him; and while he was a member of the Junior Class, Charleston College, he was my most intimate friend. I was standing within a few feet of him when he was confirmed in the Protestant Episcopal Church, by the Bishop of South Carolina. I can vouch that he never had his foot inside of the Catholic Institute spoken of; and I am sure he never spoke to Bishop England in his life. He was born a Protestant, educated a Protestant, and has more of a Protestant principle about him than the editor of the Express or the candidate of the proscriptive party he represents.

Respectfully yours,

J. G. NELSON.

A GOOD ENDORSEMENT.—Among the many good and true Democrats of the Empire State who are now battling for FREMONT and FREEDOM few have given, in briefer compass, better reasons for their course, than the Hon. CALEB LYON, of Lyonsdale, College, who thus writes:

D. S. BAILEY, Esq.: Dear Sir—I most cordially congratulate you on your noble advocacy of the principles of the republican party—of the nomination of Fremont and Dayton; they are those of the early fathers and founders of the republic, and a just reflex of the sentiments and sympathies of the democratic masses of Northern New York. In Europe I was proud, as an American, of the achievements of Col. Fremont, complimented as he was by the admiration of Humboldt, and the distinguished praise of Arago. He, in truth, unites a Phœnician love of adventure to Greek patriotism and Roman courage; whose country's glory has been his greatest, his chiefest and his only aim. Whether we view him 'mid the miasma of Salt Lake marshes, on the perils of Sierra Nevada snows, battling under the Bear flag against defeated Castro, or treating singly, surrounded by hostile savages, the captive of an army cohort, or the tenant of a British prison—in each position he has exhibited patriotism that defied persecution, and firmness that conquered misfortune. In him our country would truly realize its high ideal of a chief magistrate worthy of its progressive destiny.

Trusting that Divine Providence will bless our efforts in behalf of the cause of freedom, believe me, ever yours,

CALEB LYON OF LYONSDALE.

LYONSDALE, July, 1856.

MR. LYON was, for several years, in California and testifies to the zeal and ability with which Col. FREMONT labored to bring the Golden State into the Union with a free Constitution.

THE GAME OF THE SOUTHERN DEMOCRACY.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser thus writes under date of July 28th:

Those who, as lookers on, see most of this game, can see that the Southern Democrats are playing it upon an exclusive principle, which may result in the election of a Republican House for the next Congress. Not content with such issues as have been made in the Cincinnati platform, the Southern Democrats are too anxious to force the Northern Democracy to endorse the conduct of Mr. Brooks—that is, both the "act and the actor." This question has already created dissension in the Democratic General Congressional Committee of sixty-two, which Committee has the special charge of the Presidential canvass. The two members of the Committee who, from fear of their constituents, voted with the majority for the expulsion of Mr. Brooks, are deemed unfit for association in the canvass with the Southern Democrats. If they continue this feud for a while it will draw a line between Southern and Northern Democracy, which, though it may not dissunite them in regard to Mr. Buchanan, will render it exceedingly difficult to elect a Democrat from any Northern State to the next Congress.

RHODE ISLAND.—Providence, July 18.—The exhibition of feeling in this city in favor of Fremont is almost incredible. I find, in conversations with the citizens, that it is universally conceded that the young men, with scarcely an exception, are earnestly at work for Fremont and Freedom. Wherever there has been an opportunity to take the sense of any considerable portion of the citizens, it has invariably proved almost a unit for the People's candidate. As an instance, at one of the boarding houses yesterday, containing forty young men, thirty-eight were found for Fremont. So in the schools, manufacturing establishments, and everywhere you turn your steps, you can hear but one voice.—Hartford Press.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune attended the commencement of Franklin and Marshal College at Lancaster, Pa., on the 24th of July, and gives the following spicy political gossip in connection with an account of the regular exercises:

Hon. James Buchanan is President of the Board of Trustees, and graced the occasion with his presence upon the stage.

The students had invited their sisters, sweet heart and pretty cousins, to be present and witness their crowning laurels. Everything passed off with the greatest eclat. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of any one, unless it was the oration of W. W. Davis, of Sterling, Illinois, which really chafed the sage of Wheatland. The subject was "Decline of Political Integrity." The sentiments were noble and manly, delivered in a pleasant and forcible style, worthy of maturer years. He commended the patriotism of the fathers of the Republic, and denounced the degenerate political hucksters of the present day, who make all kinds of sycophantic promises to all parties and portions of the country for even a nomination by a Convention, no matter how corrupt or regardless of political integrity. So truckling in their character and destitute of moral courage and political integrity that men are found who applaud the attack of Canine Brooks upon the noble Sumner for defending free-om.

During the delivery of this sentence the whole house was still as death, and at its close it was heartily applauded. Mr. Davis finished his oration and retired from the front of the stage amid thunders of applause, and showers of bouquets from his lady friends. For him it was truly a triumph. But on reaching to his seat, next to that of Mr. Buchanan, did he receive congratulations of the Sage of Wheatland? No, no. Mr. Buchanan said to him, loud enough that the whole class could hear: "My young friend, you took upon the dark side of the picture. Mr. Sumner's speech was the most vulgar tirade of abuse ever delivered in a deliberative body." To which the young orator replied that he "hoped Mr. Buchanan did not approve of the attacks upon Mr. Sumner by Brooks and others." To which Mr. Buchanan rejoined that "Mr. Brooks was inconsiderate, but that Senator Butler was a very mild man." Mr. Davis expressed his regret at the moderation of Mr. Buchanan's views, and dropped the conversation. After the close of the exercises, the friends of Mr. Davis related what I have written. Mr. Davis himself said he "did not think for a moment that he was in conversation with James Buchanan," but now believed that it was the Representative of the Cincinnati Platform he was addressed by. The whole matter has caused no little gossip here in quiet old Lancaster.

The cause of Fremont and Freedom goes on ate dily and boldly. Lancaster County, the home of James Buchanan, will give over 4,000 majority for John Charles Fremont and Wm. L. Dayton. Should a perfect union with the Fillmore men be effected, as it is now being arranged, it may possibly reach Taylor's in 1848, which was 6,330.

Aside from politics we have little of interest occurring here. The "heated term" has parched the country very much. If we do not have rain soon the corn, potatoes and vegetables generally, will be nearly if not quite ruined.

The romance of "The Buried of the Heart," published in Harper's Magazine for August, is pronounced by the friends of the late distinguished ex-United States Senator to be an arrant humbug, because "it ain't properly told."

THE DEVIL'S CHAIR.—A letter from Manchester, New Hampshire, to the Boston Post, says that the Amoskeag Falls, the Devil's Chair is visible, in consequence of the low water in the Merrimac, which has not been the case for many years:

The chair is a specimen of river bottom architecture, wrought into the solid rock which forms the bed of this river. No mathematical measurement could calculate this furniture more accurately, nor could any chisel cut it more smoothly than the water has.

The tradition connected with this chair is, that the devil used to frequent those parts, and made that particular place his seat. Upon whence he used to amuse himself by tormenting the Indians with such diableric as stopping the salmon, shad and eels that used to frequent these waters, driving them back down the river, drinking up all the water of the river, or dashing it all into spray at the falls, and casting it into the air, and thus occasioning the long rainy days.

They were rid of him at length on this wise.—Passaconaway was a giant among the Penicooks. He was more to them than Hiawatha to the Dacotahs. He was a sort of Jupiter Moter among his tribe, and was prevailed upon by the prayers of all good Indians, and driven by repeated injuries, to remove the evil spirit from his throne. He did it to the eminent satisfaction of all time, and is entitled to the thanks of the Amoskeag Water Power Company; for if he were here now, drying up the water, it would cause infinite mischief to all the machinery now running here.

TO THE BUSINESS MEN OF MILWAUKEE.—The Liberal Point Democrat of last week makes the following suggestion to the business men and capitalists of our city. It is well worth their attention:

A SUGGESTION.—If the business men of Milwaukee would draw to themselves a portion of the trade of the country south of the M. & M. R. R. in Iowa and Grant counties; and if they would increase the freight and travel on that road the opportunity is theirs. A railroad from Dover on the Wisconsin river, by Dodgeville, Mineral Point, and Platteville to the State line at Hazel Green, with a connection from Platteville or some other point on the line with the western part of Grant county and Dubuque, would help Milwaukee to a large trade, and pass through a rich section of country that just now seems to be forgotten by railroad men. If Milwaukee would secure a portion of the trade of the two south western counties, it is time she made a move; when it has begun to take the Chicago "chute," it will be no late. The citizens of Mineral Point buy a little of Milwaukee dealers now, but their purchases are sent to them by the way of Chicago.

HERBERT'S POLITICAL AFFINITIES.—A few of the more shameless Buchanan organs still persist in the assertion that HERBERT, the murderer of KEATING, is a Know-Nothing and not a Democrat. HERBERT is a zealous supporter of BUCHANAN and the Pro-Slavery Platform, and was present and took part in the Cincinnati Convention, as witness the following statement from the Cincinnati Gazette of July 30th:

Herbert was a delegate from California, as P. Brooks was a delegate from South Carolina.—Brooks did not come to Cincinnati, but Herbert did, and was present every day in the body of the Hall, among the delegates. The party, however, felt somewhat ashamed of Herbert about last time, and his name was, therefore, not published as a delegate. This is the explanation.—The presence of Herbert in the Hall was at first denied, but afterwards admitted when the fact was proved by respectable eye witnesses.

No one but delegates was admitted to the body of the Hall. Herbert was constantly there during the session of the Convention.—ED. GAZETTE.

STOUGHTON, July 30, 1856.

Eds. State Journal:—The cause of Freedom and Fremont is in good hands in this part of "Old Dane," and effective work is being performed. Truly is the "Old Guard in the field," not for Slavery extension, Irish waiter-killing, or senatorial clubbing, but doing good service for Free Soil, Free Speech and Free Men.

When such men as Stoughton, Watrous, Smith, Burmey, Emerson, Boyce, Franklin, and a host of others, Democrats of the old school, and workers for the Democratic party, repudiate Buchanan and Border Ruffianism, we have good reason to believe that "the old guard is in the field."

Truly Yours,

ONE OF THE "OLD GUARD."

GERMAN VOTERS FOR FREMONT.—According to the American fashion, votes for the various Presidential candidates were taken yesterday at the different German places of resort. At Menkel's saloon, in William street, about 85 persons were in favor of Fremont to 4 for Buchanan. Some ladies being present, it was proposed to give three cheers for the old bachelor, and this was responded to unanimously by all the Fremont men. At Decking's Saloon, corner of Duane and Chatham streets, more than seven-eighths were decidedly for Fremont and Jessie. The same took place at Winker and Gillich's brewery, up town, where the cry "Fremont and Victory" made the rafters ring.

For the Mustang Colt he must clear the track!"

"He travelled for some time in company with a man who had formerly been with Col. Fremont. being asked by some man what were his political views, he answered, 'I am an out-an-out Lofoco; I know Fremont like a book; he's bound to be elected, because it's just his luck. He never undertook to do anything in his life that he didn't accomplish, and I shall help him one vote, but he don't need it—he'd be elected if nobody voted for him.'"

RICHVILLE, July 26, 1856.

EDS. COM.:—Yesterday was a great day for the cause of Free Kansas, Free Speech, Free Men, Fremont and Dayton, in this part of Indiana. For some weeks past a Republican meeting had been advertised to come off on the 25th, at the village of Andersonville, near the line dividing the counties of Rush and Franklin. It is a small, out-of-the-way town, and can only be reached by the old method of travel—the nearest railroad being eleven or twelve miles distant. We anticipated a respectable neighborhood meeting, of three or four thousand people, but to the astonishment of everybody present, there were not less than fifteen thousand in attendance—men, women, and children—pervaded by an enthusiasm which throws all former campaigns in the shade!

The heat and dust were almost insupportable, yet the sturdy farmers, their wives, sons and daughters, in carriages, wagons, and on horse back, came to the meeting in processions of thousands in a body, covered with dust, but animated by an enthusiasm which no ordinary obstacle can dampen. They came with drums beating and banners flying, and cannons roaring.

There were, I should judge, eight or ten wagons, drawn by teams of six, eight and ten horses filled with young ladies, representing the thirty-one States of the Union and Kansas, bearing flags with the names of the State printed upon them, that of Kansas being draped in mourning. It was a great outpouring of the people. There was no dissunion there—they are for all the States, and Free Kansas!

It is useless to talk about results when the people become aroused—they never fail to accomplish their purpose. The Marshals, Postmasters, Tide Waiters, Collectors, &c, may struggle on, but they are doomed—the people have determined to "crush out" the Black Democracy, and pass judgment upon their Kansas outrages—their murders, their arsons, robberies, invasions, bloody codes, and iniquities generally, commencing with the repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

There was an abundant supply of speakers on the ground. H. S. Lane, Col. T. Smith, S. W. Parker, H. L. Ellsworth, P. A. Hackleman, J. D. Howland, W. C. Moreau, S. H. Borgadus, W. J. Peaslee, and others—only a portion of whom made speeches. The speech of Henry S. Lane was highly lauded—it was one of his best efforts.

OFFICE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENCE OF LAKE MICHIGAN LIGHT WORKS, CHICAGO, July 31, 1856.

The dredging of the bar at the mouth of Chicago harbor has produced a ship channel, by the direct entrance close to the north pier head, of ten feet depth by two hundred and fifty feet wide. Vessels drawing full ten feet may enter as follows, viz:

Bring the north pier head to bear S.W. by W., and run for it until within one hundred feet, or sixteen fathoms of it, taking care then to give it a berth of fifty feet, or say eight fathoms. So soon as the beacon light on the north pier bears N. W. run into the river on a course W. by S.

Vessels may enter at night as follows, viz:

Bring the Light House to bear W. ½ S. and run for it, keeping on that course until the north pier head is passed twenty fathoms. Then run for the middle of the river as per the chart.

FREMONT AND FREEDOM!!

HON. MARTIN GROVER,

An Old-Fashioned Democrat,

FROM NEW YORK,

WILL ADDRESS THE FREMONT CLUB

This, Saturday Evening, August 2, at 8 o'clock

—AT—

YOUNG'S HALL.

All those who want to hear a DEMOCRAT'S reasons for supporting FREMONT, are invited to attend.

By order of the Executive Committee.

POLICE COURT, AUGUST 1.

BEFORE CLINTON WAILWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Two men named George and David Sanderson, were brought up on a charge of committing an assault and battery upon a woman named Rebecca Davies, under the following circumstances:

Mrs. Davies was the owner of a tenement in the Third Ward in which the defendants lived, and it appeared there was some dispute as to the lease and possession of the house. Mrs. Davies, together with Mr. Higgins went to the defendants, and the latter enquired of the defendants in a quiet manner if they would give up possession of the house; one of them replied that he had a lease for 9½ months, and afterwards that he had not a lease; on saying again that he had a lease, Mrs. Davies remarked that he hadnot one, when one of the defendants jumped at her, called her a tyiny bitch and threw her down; Mr. Higgins interfered to protect her, when the other man caught hold of Mrs Davies, and the two jumped her down on the floor in a brutal manner. This was the statement of Mr. Higgins and Mrs. Davies.

A girl named Mary Shearn was called by Mr. Doran, who defended the prisoners, and swore that she saw the whole transaction; that the defendant told Mrs. Davies twice to go out of his house, and the third time took hold of her to put her out, but that there was no hunting, &c., done.

The Court remarked that under the evidence, which raised a doubt, the defendants must be discharged; but he "must say that there has been willful perjury committed on one side or the other; but that is a matter for the grand jury, to be attended to by the proper officers."

One of the witnesses changed color as often as a dying dolphin, at the remarks of the Court. The bruises on the complainant were never made by being order ed out of a house.

There were but two cases from the Watch House, and both women; one was Mary Murphy, who, for being drunk and disorderly, was sent to jail for 5 days in default of $5 fine; Mary Green, for stealing two pieces of lumber from the Lacrosse depot, was, after consultation with the City Attorney, sent to the Poor House.

Corn Exchange—Commissions.

At the meeting of the Corn Exchange, yesterday morning, Messrs. Smith, Nunn and Strong, the Committee appointed at a previous meeting, submitted their report as to the rates of Commission, to be rigidly adhered to from and after the 1st of August. The report was adopted and the Tariff of prices, for all sales and purchases of Country produce, fixed as follows:

On all grain, excepting Oats, 1¼ cts per bushel, without advance or acceptance.

On Oats 1 cent per bushel.

On Flour 2½ per cent.

On all other products 2½ per cent for all sums over $100, and 5 per cent for sums under $100.

Pork 1½ per cent and when retailed from platform 2½ do.

Commission on purchases of Grain from Warehouses or Cars 1 cent per bushel, with funds on hand—on all other property, 2½ per cent for all over $100 and 5 per cent for less than $100.

For advancing without agreement,	2½ per cent.
For accepting " "	2½ "
For Guaranteeing sales,	5% "

All expenses actually incurred to be added.

Risk of loss by fire (unless written order to insure) and other unavoidable occurrences, if the usual care be taken to secure the property, in all cases to be borne by owners.

MILWAUKEE ADVERTISING DIRECTORY.—Mr. Morsmo, who has just issued No. 1 of the Milwaukee Advertising Directory, will call upon our citizens to-day with samples of the same, and to solicit subscribers for No. 2. He has taken much trouble to get up a conspicuous Directory which is of great value to those using it as an advertising medium for their business.

No. 2 of his Directory will be on an improved plan and larger, and when put up in frames will enable our merchants to send into the interior and abroad an advertisement of their business that can be read at a glance wherever it may be placed; his terms are reasonable, and will be made known when he calls.

COMMON COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS LAST NIGHT.—The Common Council held a special meeting last night

An ordinance was passed for the purchase of grounds for school purposes in the Second and Seventh Wards. Lot in block 98, also lots 15, 16, 17 and 18, in block 145, and lot 15 in block 98; also the alley joining lots 9, 15, 16 and 18, in block 85, all in the 4th Ward, were declared nuisances, and ordered to be abated within 24 hours from the publication of the resolution. Some other business, extending the fire limits in the First Ward, and some resolutions, &c., when the Council adjourned to Monday evening at 7½ o'clock.

NEW YORK DINING ROOMS IN YOUNG'S HALL.—The New York Dining Rooms, which have recently changed hands, are again opened, and the present proprietors advertise their readiness to supply Balls, Parties Pic Nics &c. with suppers or dinners. I shall continue to publish a weekly report of sales as heretofore, and would recommend all who are interested in Real Estate, to take the paper containing my said report, and file the same, by which means they will always be familiar with, and have a correct list of all transactions in this line of business. My report is got up with the greatest possible care, and is therefore correct and reliable in every item.

W. LAIDLAW.

BRUTAL RAPE.—A fellow named Wm. Riley who has been arrested, tried and acquitted for stealing a watch at Oak Creek, was arrested by Fellerman Rice and Wright for committing a rape upon a woman named Roberts, residing on the outskirts of the Fifth Ward. The woman, who received a warrant from the Police Court in the morning, was brutally beaten, the brute having to bear her senseless before he could accomplish his hellish deed. We understand that the night previous, another man, a companion of Riley's, attempted the same deed, but failed through some persons appearing in sight. The woman had a young child in her arms, and was an object of pity and compassion when in Court.

THE SUICIDE.—The name of the man who committed suicide by shooting himself with a pistol on Thursday was Otto Riel, a German by birth and a tailor by trade. His leg had been broken twice, and it seems it became necessary to have a surgical operation performed upon him for some injury received elsewhere. This he appears to have been afraid of, and to have stated that he would shoot himself rather than be laid on the operating table again. He has some friends living in this city, and was a single man.

KILBOURN MILLS.—It was stated, in a paragraph in yesterday's paper, that the new steam engine in the Empire Mills was to be connected by a shaft with the Kilbourn Mills, so as to drive the run of stone in the latter mill by steam power. We are assured by the proprietor of the Kilbourn Mills, that this is an entire mistake. He has plenty of water for his mill, and no need of steam power.

BANK FAILED.—A despatch from New York was received last night, by one of our banks, stating that the VALLEY BANK OF MARYLAND, was not redeemed at its agency in New York, and that it was supposed the bank had failed.

FOR COLLINGWOOD.—The steamer Augusta, Captain MILLER, leaves Bigby's Pier for Collingwood on Sunday morning, at 8 o'clock. For freight and passage apply to L. D. JAMES, corner of Main and Huron Streets.

STEALING PIGS.—Three sailors, belonging to a vessel now in port, loading for Ogdensburgh, were arrested by the Police, yesterday, for stealing pigs. The value of the pigs cannot be much, as one of them, after it was taken on board, escaped through the scupper hole.

☞ Rev. Dr. WILEY will deliver a discourse to-morrow evening, at 7½ o'clock, in the First Presbyterian Church, relative to the Cause of Education as a local interest, and in support of a City University.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Afternoon services will be suspended at St. James' Church, Spring Street, during the month of August.

MUZZLE YOUR DOGS.—The Police killed, yesterday, upwards of fifty dogs. Every dog found running at large, without a muzzle, will be killed.

FIFTEEN YEARS' LEASE.—Attention is invited to the advertisement of J. S. FILMORE, of fifteen years' lease of a house and lot for sale.

EIGHT COUNTRY SEATS, of 20 acres adjoining each other, within one mile of the city limits for sale. A golden opportunity for a safe investment!

Having determined to change my position, and remove from the State I now offer for sale my entire stock of EIGHT COUNTRY SEATS, consisting of 160 acres one mile south of the city limits, and 20 miles from the Winkers Point bridge. The situation upon four corners, and been chosen

We have for over two years owned the best of this site in Milwaukee County. It is a warm, rich, gravel loam, easily cultivated to fruits and vegetables, and may be divided into four Farms of forty acres each, or 8 square lots and have within it the most durable water upon each forty acres and not a rod of waste in the whole, or any but the best quality of land.

Sixty acres of the farm are now in a good state of public cultivation, from half thereof in meadow, with over forty acres thereof, where the stumps do not average more than one to the acre. Two indifferent log cabins are built on the land, and a well finished frame barn, 30 by 44 feet, and upon the premises. A thrifty young orchard of nearly Bearing apple trees which would at present prices, if interspersed with about 500 large shade trees (of the kind usually set out for that purpose), and a row of maple, walnut and locust trees on both sides of the road, be worth $10 per tree standing on the ground!

The timber, also upon the farm is estimated by no worse than cords, over $10,000

Having owned the farm now two years and during a portion of the time constantly used it with my own hands, and likewise employed as many men as I could on the property, and partially improved the whole, I attained to the conviction after long consultation and full personal deliberation, that I would sell it to any one who would make it a home for himself and family, and not as a speculation, and I am willing to sell it, to break up and divide it into parcels, for more, I will offer it at such a price as will make it the best investment for such a purchaser in Milwaukee with the following terms, viz:
